

Protect the ACA

From Young Invincibles:

News reports are sounding the alarm on the devastating consequences of repealing the Affordable Care Act, but Republicans in Congress have yet to tell the public what their plan is to improve health care.

Join us in telling Congressional leaders that they have a responsibility to put forward a plan to #ProtectOurCare, because health care should be about the public's well-being, not politics.

52 million Americans with pre-existing conditions could become uninsurable if Obamacare is repealed BUSINESS INSIDER

Repealing Obamacare with no viable replacement ready to go could wreak havoc, health insurance experts warn

Repealing Obamacare Would Give A Tax Cut To Millionaires, Like Donald Trump THE HUFFINGTON POST
Right now that money helps poor and middle-class people get health care.

Repealing Obamacare Could Leave 59 Million Americans Uninsured the Atlantic
That's more than before the law was passed.

If you have employer health insurance, an Obamacare repeal will affect you too 